Enrollment Information

Enrollment Procedures

- Enrollment at Redeemer is on an annual basis.
- An application for enrollment or re-enrollment form must be filed annually and received before the deadline for both initial and continued enrollment.
- Application for enrollment does not constitute acceptance.
- Once a family has been accepted, the registration procedure is mandatory and becomes part of the requirement for attendance at Redeemer School.
- Fees and tuition are applicable to all persons, Redeemer Church members as well as non-members, entering Redeemer Lutheran Christian School. The application fee is not refundable and must accompany each application or the application will not be processed.

All New Enrollees

Students will be required to take an admission test at the time and place designated by the school. Parents will meet with the principal and will be notified regarding enrollment. Parents of new enrollees are required to present medical records and reports. Enrollment and grade placement of transfer students will be conditional until report cards, cumulative records, proof of physical exam within the current school year, and immunization records from the previous school have been received and evaluated.
